

Q How many degrees are there involved?

A 3: the 1st or joining degree : the 2nd degree called the "Princes" degree, and the 3rd being the installation of the head of the Conclave who is known as the Supreme Ruler.

Q How Conclaves are there in East Lancashire?

A There are currently 15 working conclaves throughout the Province.

Q What is the required qualification for membership?

A Solely that of a Master Mason in good standing.

Q Who can I contact for more information?

A More information can be obtained from:

Frank Smith Tel: 01706 642691

OR

Nigel Love

OR

Tel: 01706 377244

Via the web site at:

osmeastlancs.org.uk

Q What is the Order based on?

A The friendship and brotherhood of David and Jonathan, and is probably the most caring of all Masonic orders.

Q How much does it cost to join and annual fees?

A The joining fee is approximately £30 and the annual subscription approximately £35.

Q Where do you meet?

A Various venues throughout East Lancashire.

Q How often do you meet?

A Each Lodge, or Conclave as it is called, meets 3 times a year.

Q On what days do you meet?

A The meeting days vary with each Conclave from Monday to Saturday.

Q What is the cost of the regalia?

A Until Provincial rank is achieved there are no regalia costs.

Order of the Secret Monitor Conclaves in East Lancashire

Cockcroft, No 25	Burnley
Champion, No 26	Darwen
Supera Moras, No 49	Salford
Freeman, No 57	Shaw
Earl of Harewood, No 71	Accrington
Fraternity, No 75	Salford
Bury, No 80	Rawtenstall
Roses in Concord, No 185	Clayton-le-Moors
E. Lancs. Prov Officers, No 212	Darwen
John Walter Chitty, No 215 (P)	Manchester
Forest of Pendle, No 219	Padiham
Roche Valley, No 252	Shaw
Robert Burns, No 368	Salford
Dr. J Edward Glover, No 409	Rochdale
Scarlet Cord Conclave of East Lancashire, No 542	Rawtenstall

Order of the Secret Monitor Brotherhood of Bavid and Jonathan

Province of East Lancashire